

Foreword .....	vii
Acknowledgments .....	viii
Chapter 1. What Marketing Means
What is marketing? .....	1
A few misconceptions .....	2
When to market yourself .....	3
Chapter 2. Why Appraisers Must Market Themselves
The appraisal business has changed .....	5
Why appraisers dislike marketing .....	6
General guidelines .....	7
Chapter 3. Getting Started
Play up the competence factor .....	11
In-person tactics work best .....	12
Target your markets .....	12
Information is your best selling point .....	12
Start from the clients' needs .....	13
The 80/20 rule .....	13
Learn from others .....	14
Find out how you're doing with a survey .....	14

Chapter 4. Planning Your Marketing Strategy
Why a plan is critical .....	21
Think it through and write it down .....	22
Analyze your strengths .....	22
Examine your client base .....	23
Envision market changes .....	23
Objectives, tactics, and action steps .....	26
Tracking your progress .....	27
Find your niche .....	29
Chapter 5. Networking: The Art of Making Personal Contacts
The appraiser's networking targets .....	32
Getting referrals .....	32
Networking is a two-way street .....	33
Keep contacts fresh .....	34
Indirect networking opportunities .....	35
On-line networking .....	35
Chapter 6. Increasing Your Profile: Information-Based Marketing
Writing for publication .....	39
News releases .....	40
Speaking engagements .....	43
Newsletters .....	45
Media appearances .....	45
Public service announcements .....	46
Market surveys .....	46
Chapter 7. Other Promotional Tools and Opportunities
Brochures .....	49
Presentation folders .....	50
Exhibits and trade shows .....	50
Advertising .....	52
Direct mail .....	53
Business directories .....	53
Business cards and resumes .....	53
Public relations professionals .....	53
Chapter 8. Projecting a Professional Image
Providing good service .....	55
Telephone etiquette .....	57
More little things to work on .....	58
Bibliography .....	61