

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ABOUT THE AUTHORix
ACKNOWLEDGMENTSxi
FOREWORDxiii

CHAPTER 1. AN INTRODUCTION TO RELIGIOUS PROPERTIES.	1
What Is a Religious Property?	2
The Evolution of Religious Properties	3
The Cultural and Historical Significance of Religious Properties	5
Why Do Religious Properties Get Appraised?.	7
Why Are Religious Properties Bought and Sold?	8
Trends in Religious Observance	9
Objectivity and Conflict of Interest.11

CHAPTER 2. PROPERTY ANALYSIS	17
Criteria for a Religious Property Location.17
Criteria for a Suitable Religious Property Site.20
Religious Property Improvements23
Construction Quality29
The Property/Site Visit31
Renovation, Expansion, and New Construction.40
Alternative Uses41

CHAPTER 3. VALUATION CONSIDERATIONS	45
What Type of Value Is Sought45
Market Analysis/Supply and Demand46
The Impact of Economic Conditions on Religious Properties.47
Real Estate Cycles.49
Highest and Best Use53
The Three Approaches to Value55
Financing Considerations.57
Strengths and Weaknesses Analysis61

CHAPTER 4. LAND VALUATION	67
Why Value the Land?67
Highest and Best Use and the Search for Comparables.68
Application of Adjustments69
The Impact of Land Values on Economic Life73
When a Cursory Land Valuation Will Do.74

CHAPTER 5. THE COST APPROACH	77
Why Use the Cost Approach?77
Cost Approach Basics78
Estimating Cost79
Accrued Depreciation83
Extracting Depreciation from the Market87

CHAPTER 6. THE SALES COMPARISON APPROACH.	95
The Search for Comparables95
The Verification Process99
Application of Adjustments	102
The Reconciliation Process	108

CHAPTER 7. CASE STUDIES. 113

Case Study 1. A Temple’s Congregation
Plans a Small Expansion 113

Case Study 2. A Very Large Mosque for Sale 118

Case Study 3. Depreciation at a Synagogue 122

Case Study 4. Possible Standards or Ethics
Violation 125

Case Study 5. A Superadequate Religious
Property in a Rural Market 127

Case Study 6. Church for Sale 129

BIBLIOGRAPHY 135