

Preamble to the Appraisal Institute Standards of Professional Practice

Real estate is one of the basic sources of wealth in the global economy. Therefore, those who own, manage, sell, purchase, invest in, or lend money on the security of real estate must have ready access to the services of individuals who provide unbiased opinions of value, as well as sound information, analyses, and advice on a wide range of issues related to property economics. For these reasons, the services of valuation professionals are vital to the well-being of our society and the global economy, and foster economic growth, stability, and public confidence.

Because of this vital role and a commitment to professionalism, the Appraisal Institute has adopted a Code of Professional Ethics and Standards of Professional Practice to establish requirements for ethical and competent practice. - applicable national or international Standards, and the Certification Standard of the Appraisal Institute.
